Per Year, Six Months, : : Three Months,

TERMS:

INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

F. A. CHENDWETH, Attorney at Law,

ANY OFFICE Corner of Monroe and 24 St. [16:1tf J. W. RAYBURN, CORVALLIS.

Attorney at Law,

Va. Special attention given to the Collection of Nores and Accounts.

JAMES A. YANTIS,

Att's and Councelor at Law, CORVALLIS, OREGON.

WILL PRACTICE IN ALL THE COURTS OF I am also prepared to keep EXTRA, WHITE WHEAT, separate from other lots, thereby enabling as to SELL AT A PREMIUM. Also prepared to W the State. Special attention given to matters in Probate. Collections will receive prompt and care-ful attention. Giffee in the Court House. 16:1tf. J. C. MORELAND, (CITY ATTORNEY,) ATTORNEY AT LAW PORTLAND, OREGON.

OFFICE-Monastes' Brick, First street bet, Morrison and Yamhill. 14:38tf

G. A. WHITNEY, M. D., Graduate of Bellevue Hospital Medical College, N. Y. City, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,

PHILOMATH, OREGON.

Diseases of Women a specialty, Residence in Westlake's Building, corner of First 13.32tf. DR. F. A. VINCENT,

DENTIST, CORVALLIS,

15.3tf.

DRAKE & GRANT. ·MERCHANT TAILORS,

OREGON.

A LL WORK IN OUR LINE NEATLY AND promptly executed. Repairing and Cleaning a specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed. Snop opposite Graham & Hamilton's. 13-27tf

G. R. FARRA, M. D., PHYSICIAN, SURBEON AND OBSTETRCIAN

OFFICE—OVER GRAHAM & HAMILTON'S Drug Store, Corvallis, Gregon. 14:2691

NEW TIN SHOP J. K. WEBBER, Propr.,

STOVES AND TINWARE,

Main St., Corvallis.

ALL KINDS. All work warranted and at reduced rates.

H. E. HARRIS,

One Door South of Graham & Hamilton's, CORVALLIS - - - OREGON

Groceries, Provisions,

DRY-GOODS

Corvallis, Jan. 3, 1878. J. BLUMBERG.

(Bet. Southers' Drug Store and Taylor's Market,) CORVALLIS. - OREGON. GROCERIES and PROVISIONS, FURNISHING

M Goods, Cigars and Tobacco, etc., etc.

33, Goods dilivered free to any part of the city.

Produce taken, at highest market rates, in exchange for goods.

March 7, 1878

15:10tf

W. C. CRAWFORD, DEALER IN

WATCHES.

CL OCK S! TEWELRY, SPECTACLES, SIVER WARE, ETC

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, STRINGS, &C.

READ, AND PROFIT THEREBY!

Physician and Surgeon, (Graduate of the University of Pennsylvania) OFFERS HIS SERVICES TO THE PEO-

Specialties: Surgery, Obstetrics, and Dieases of Women and Children.
Will practice in City of Country. Rooms at New England Hotel, for the present. Corvallis, Nov. 15, 1878. 15:46tf.

Corvalliz Gazette.

VOL. XVI.

ROBERT N. BAKER,

TAIL OF.

to cd with a fair stare of the public patronage. A work warranted, when made under his supervision its supervision in the sairing and cleaning, promptly attended to, Corvallia, Nov. 28, 1878. 15-38tf.

Grain Storage!

A WORD TO FARMERS.

H AVING PURCHASED THE COMMODIOUS Warehouse of Messrs, King & Bell, and thoroug ily overhauled the same, I am new ready to rece, we grain on storage at the reduced

Hate of I cents per Bushel.

Mighest Market Price

OARD and LODGING

Neat Rooms and Splendid Table.

MRS. JOSEPH POLLY.

EMPIREMARKET

JOHN S. BAKER, Propr.

BEEF. PORK. MUTTON, and VEAL. Especial attention to making extra BO-LOGNA SAUSAGE. Being a practical butcher, with large experi

ASTONISHING

CURES

paired memory, Mental Diseases, Weakness of Reproductive Organs, etc., etc.,

By the Great English Remedy.

SIR ASTLEY COOPER'S

VITAL RESTORATIVE

or $10 sent secure from observation upon RECEIP OF PRICE.

F FRICE.

None genuine without the signature of the propri for, A. E. MINTIE, M. D.

or, A. E. MINTIE, M. D. Paysicians say these troubles cannot be cured. The VITAL RESTORATIVE and Dr. Mintie & Co's pecial Treatment testify positively that they can.

COTSULTATION FREE.

Thorough examination and advice, including analysis, $5 00. Address

DR. E. A. MINTIE, M. D.

Graduate of University of Pennsylvania, and lat Resident Surgeon, Orthapædic Hospital, Philadel

Office Hours—10 A. M. to 2 P. M. daily; 6 to 8 evalings. Sundays, 11 A. M. to 1 P. M. only. 15:32m6

THE GREATEST

EN THE WORLD!

JOHN S BAKER

15:4Vtf

hare of public patronage. Corvallis, Aug. 1, 1878.

choicest cuts of

Dec. 6th, 1878.

CORVALLIS, FRIDAY, JANUARY, 31, 1879.

R. H. WARREN. HOUSE, SIGN AND CARRIAGE PAINTERS, (Successors to J. R. Bayley & Co.,) Will PROMPTLY ATTEND TO BUSINESS IN 7 ILL PROMPTLY ATTEND TO DUSINGS IN his line either at Corvallis or Philomath, work executed in the very latest and best style, ning a Specialty in Laurel, Walnut. Oak and sle. Paper Hanging neatly done. Give me a fair 1.

Heavy and Shelf Hardware, FORMERLY OF ALBANY, WHERE HE HAS

RANGES.

Manufactured and Home Made TIN AND COPPER WARE

Pumps, Pipe, etc.

all Job Work neatly and quickly done.

the sale of the best and latest improved of all kinds, together with a full assortment AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

Sole Agents for the celebrated

OUR CORRESPONDENT ON YESTERDAY WAS sizes and styles.

At their residence, just opposite the residence of Judge F. A. Chenoweth prepared and now in readiness for such I carders as may choose to give her a call, either by the single meal or by the week. Mrs. Polly has a reputation as a cook, and sets as good a table as can be found in the State. Solicits a share of patronage. 15:46tf. furnished cheerfully, on application.

No pains will be spared to furnish our customers with the best goods in market, in our

> WOODCOCK & BALDWIN. Corvallis, Jan. 26, 18

MILLINERY GOODS. Of Nervous Bebility, Lost Manhood, Paralysis, Exhausted Vitality, Im-

Ever brought to Corvallis, which she will sell at prices that chasing elsewhere.

TRESTORES HEARING AND STRENGTHENS the Eyedgat. It is not a QUACK NOSTRUM. It is not a QUACK NOSTRUM. It is neither a STIMULANT NOR EXCITANT, but it will do the work thoroughly and well.

DR. MINTLE & COS great success in the above complaint is largely due to the use of this wonderful Medicine.

Price $3.00 per bottle, or four times the quantity for $10 sent secure from abservation upon RECEMPT. RELIABLE PATTERNS. Corvallis, May 2, 1878.

E. HOLGATE.

ATTORNEY AT LAW

Y in the State.
Having had four years experience as County Judge, and given close attention to Probate matters, I in well prepared to attend to all business in that line; also contested Road Matters. I will give strict and prompt atten-

REAL ESTATE, Kidney and Bladder Medicine! and General Business Agency.

DR. MINTIE's VEGETABLE NEPHRETICUA Home Mutual Insurance Co.

For Inflammation of the Kidneys or Bladder, Pain in the Back, Diabetse, Bright's Disease, etc. TRY IT! One bottle will convince you of its Great Merit; Ask your Druggest for it and take no other. Everybody who uses it recommends it.

Price 81 25 per Bottle. To be had of all Druggists, or of the Proprietor, at Kearny Street, San Francisco, California.

DR. MINTIE'S ENGLISH DANDELION PILLS!

THE ONLY two medicines which really act upon the LIVER, one is Mercury or Blue Pill, and the other THOUSANDS of Constitutions have been destroyed by Mercury or Blue Pill, and Calomel. The only SAFE Remedy is D.S. MINTLE'S Dandelion Combina-

VEGETABLE, which acts gently upon the Liver and removes all obstructions. Price per box, 25 cents. To be had o all Druggists.
All letters should be directed to, and special treat nent given, at No. 11 Kearney St San Francisco, July 11, 1878.

FRUIT TREES AND SEEDS!

The Coast HillsNursery OFFER A FINE AND CAREFULLY GROWN

FRUIT AND NUT TREES to suit the times. Also an assortment of Garden Seeds. All our seeds are carefully tested. Seeds in packets sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price, 10 cents. A few varieties choice Flower Seeds at the Vegetable Plants and Flowers for sale in the Spring. Orders by mall will receive prompt attention. Address ED. C. PHELPS, Manager, Dec. 20, 1878.

SETTLE UP.

A LL PERSONS KNO VING THEMSELVES work done to order on short notice, at reasettle said indebtedness immediately and save costs, as our business must be closed up.
B. T. TAYLOR & CO.
Corvallis 13, 1878.

WOODCOCK & BALDWIN,

KEEP CONSTANTLY ON HAND AT THE

IRON, STEEL, TOOLS, STOVES,

A GOOD TINNER constantly on hand, and

Also Agents for Knapp, Burrell & Co., fo FARM MACHINERY,

ST. LOUIS CHARTER OAK STOVES

the BEST IN THE WORLD. Also the Norman Range, and many other patterns, in all 20 Particular attention paid to Farmers' wants, and the supplying extras for Farm Ma-chinery, and all information as to such articles,

Our motto shall be, prompt and fair dealing with all. Call and examine our stock, before going elsewhere Satisfaction guaranteed.

Fresh Goods

H AVING BOUGHT THE ABOVE MARKET and fixtures, and permanently located in Corvallis, I will keep constantly on hand the

Max. Friendly's New Store. All the ence in the business, I flatter myself that I can mand complete. All work warrant-give satisfaction to customers Please call and MRS. E. A. KNIGHT

DRESS TRIMMINGS, ETC.,

Defy Competition. Ladies are respectfully invited to call and examine her goods and prices before pur-

Mme. DEMOREST'S Rooms at residence, two blocks north

WILL PRACTICE IN ALL THE COURTS

tion to collections, and as heretotore will do a Local Agent of 75 Office up-stnir's in Fisher's new brick middle room, with Judge Burnett. Entrance at rear end of building on Monroe Street.

THE STAR BAKERY. MAIN STREET, CORVALLIS HENRY WARRIOR, PROPRIETOR.

FAMILY SUPPLY STORE GROCERIES. DREAD, CARES, PIES, CANDIES, TOYS, Etc., Always on Hand.

calities. Particulars and samples worth $5 free. Improve your spare time at this business. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, 15:12y1

AUGUST KNIGHT, CABINET MAKER.

UNDERTAKER. Cor. Second and Monroe Sts.,

CORVALLIS, OREGON, KEEPS CONSTANTLY ON HAND ALL

FURNITURE.

sonable rates. Corvallis Jan. 1, 18 7. 14:1tf Work and Win.

Up! awaken from slumber! There is work for you to do; Would you plod along life's pathway With no better aim in view Than your silly, selfish pleasures? If another's way is dark, Shed some sunlight o'er his pathway— Lend a hand to steer his bark.

Each one has his work appointed-Has some field to labor in. While ambition points us upward To the motto, "Work and win." Do not think yourself degraded-We have our respective spheres; All can not be doctors, lawyers, Merchants, ministers, or peers.

Every person has his station-Has some duty to perform, Which, if nobly done, is worthy Of the higest honors worn; Let us live, then truly, nobly, And in life's incessant din Have some aim for which to labor, With the motto, "Work and win."

There are thorny paths before us-Paths that other feet have trod, Until, wearied with life's burden, They are laid beneath the sod. We must all toil up the hillside-Up where bravest son's have been, Never faltering, always striving, With the will to work and win.

THREE TIMES.

A Tale of Everyday Life.

members of his lady's large circle of ac-quaintances.

The Mine Could had and now dress. es of ther own fancying from a fashionable modiste, and it was their whim that their skirts should be trimmed with scarlet flow-day of her father.

endured here?"

"Ah, papa, how am I to answer him?"

oregon in mid-summer could not surpass sent to the department, and if they were not this day while I are writing. But it brings right it was the day of the father. The Misses Capel had ordered new dress- endured here'" es of ther own fancying from a fashionable modiste, and it was their whim that their skirts should be trimmed with scarlet flowers of a most expensive description. Made me declared that she should have to send expressly to Paris, but this was false, her best flowers being made by a young girl whose taste in grouping them and blending the colors was exquisite. Strict injunctions were given to the florist to have the garnitures ready by a certain lour, and to expensive description. Made and the image of your father, which he is anything but sunshine to the people generally. First, it brings sickness and death to many a home; next it brings the promise of a failure of crops, which means poverty and want to many more homes; and to sum to disposition whatever to misrepresent the number of Indians, I know it was one continues.

she sat in the poorly furnished sitting room of her faithful friend—for Hetta Capel still lived the cousins who had discarded her. Did they ever think of her now? What So Len—no longer the outcast, but flat-used to be sent to you—but that minds me, of the season.—Noah's Sunday Times.

Miss Hetta, dear, that you're not quite forgotten. The old apple woman Biddy, came to the door this morning and popped this parcel into my hands. You'll open at before ou go out, won't you?"

Hetta smiled, hesitated, and then cut the string of the parcel. Ah, the doctor knew precisely what she most needed at this inclement season. A set of furs, not very costly, but well chosen, and a soft, warm crimson scarf, to wrap around her slender throat; how it cheered her to find that one riend thought kindly of her still!

"I'd dearly like to know who sends these parcels, Miss Hetta," said Nanny. "I used to think it must be Mr. Maurice, till we heard that he was married. But Biddy's as close as wax; not a word will she say, coax her as much as I will."

"There's warmer, truer hearts, thank heaven, than Maurice Capel's," sighed Het-ta; "and if I were rich, Nanny, I would soon devise some way of proving my grati-tude to the one generous friend who never forgets me; but, alas! work hard as I will, we can harely live."
"Th: t's because I've got such an unfortu-"Thit's because I've got such an unfortunate appetite!" lamented Nanny. "If I could but do without eating! Now, don't ye laugh, Miss Hetta, just as I'm so miserable, and there's footsteps coming up the stairs. It's never the landlord for the rent and we not ready for him!"

Silently, Hetta slipped her hand into the woman's and they stood together, listening, till the steps paused at their door. It but had given him a high post in her own ents.

"My child," he said, mournfully, as Hetta flew to him, "my joy at beholding you once more is marred by the tidings that you have disgraced yourself. Can this be true?" have disgraced yourself. Can this be true?"
Hetta wrung her hands and looked from one to the other. To tell all now would sound as if she sought to avenue herself on sound as if she sought to avenue herself on those who had so hastily condemned her; to remain silent would be to lose her father's affection forever.

But while she hesitated, Mrs. Capel in-

'It is evident that Hetta is obstinately now tall, robust, all traces of his early OUR ALAMEDA LETTER. trials effaced; a man, in fact, whom they might ignore, but could not despise—came The sight of Hetta's relations surprised, in. The sight of Hetta's relations surprised, but did not abash him, and when Mrs. Capel tauntingly told him why he had been lured there, his eyes flashed as proudly as her own. taking the hand of Hetta, "I can be silent no longer. While I was ignorant of your reasons for leaving your uncle's house, I kept my promise; but, now, those who Secondly, let me say a word about my self. gether with the great heat of last summer, which I herewith enclose.

have dared to doub, you, must know all."

"Dared!" echoed Mr. Capel angrily.

"Dared, did you say—and to ma?"

"Yes, sir?" answered Len, confronting him, undanatedly. "Your looks ask who him, undanatedly. "Your looks ask who him, undanutedly. "Your looks ask who I am. Let me tell you what you would have learned long since, but for the entreatson of your elder brother!" "Impossible!"

scious power carried conviction to his kins- to do anything in that direction I was vis- high time I was to the end of my letter. ited with a second fracture, and thus again would have claimed my inheritance—and, prevented from going. And now I am half "An angel pleaded with me when I would have claimed my inheritance—and, for her sake, I vowed to let you and yours retain it. But I little thought that you and I am almost converted to the doctrine would require her as you have done!" he of Fatalism, for it seems that plan and araddet indicately. "and if she hids me reforget everything but the days when my our parts are all prepared for us and at the own child.'.

"I thought this would be your decision," to perform our part; and the question is can time to glance around me and think. spect, whose affection have never wavered? Hetta, is is true I have hovered near your dwelling, for I have not been able to deny all express an opinion-" the weather." There was to be a juvenile ball at 25, Darby Crescent a Tweifth Night ball—and the tiny king of the festival was to be the bally son of Maurice Capel. He had married the woman of his mother's choice soon after Hetta was driven from the house, and it was in honor of the birth of another Maurice Capel that his grandsire proposed to throw open his doors to the youthful members of his lady's large circle of active strain. Hetta, best and dearest, will you be mine?—will you be min

THE AND, the Largest and Best Stock of More than once a tear fell upon them as the result of the res would they say if they kew that it, was she who had devised the wreaths and bouquets with which they would adorn themselves?

So Len—no longer the detacts, being the devised up to—now for the third time ascended those steps on which he with which they would adorn themselves? with which they would adorn themselves? Had once sat shivering; ascended them with "Have ye nearly done, Miss Heta, darling?" asked old Namy, who was sitting with her boanet and shawl on ready to take home the word as soon as it was completed. "That's well; but it's a shame that you should have made them for somebody else instead of your own pretty self; you don't have a single pleasure in life—you that once had so many! Dear heart! when I think of had so many! Dear heart! when I think of had so many! Dear heart! when I think of had so many! Dear heart! when I think of had considered them with his bride upon his arm—for the weiding to a simple pleasure in sumptuous style at Maurice Capel. His rich would have made them for somebody else instead of your own pretty self; you don't have had with Hetta, the little consin, who had so many! Dear heart! when I think of had so many! Dear heart! when I think of had so many! Dear heart! when I think of had so many! Dear heart! when I think of had so many! Dear heart! when I think of his consistency of the coming up, and the person must be blind indeed who cannot read "the hand writing on him, and they never will until he has gained their confidence.

California is one that unfortunately unreaded them with his bride upon his arm—for the weiding to have dearlier and rises higher until it obscures the san, and foretells unmistakably of the coming at all, I want them to go in their true light.

Very respectfully, F. M. Carter.

Newton, Jan. 19, 1879.

The Distributes.

ly, I've a nice new story to-night." But no Polly came.

"Go to your father, child," said the mother.

"Go to your father, child," said the mother. mother.

mother.

"No, I don't want to," said the little brotherhood of man." The great idea that brotherhood of man." The great idea that America is the asylum for the poor and opwas a temptation.

"But why?" urged the mother. I thought you liked papa's lap so well?"

"Yes," said the child; "but to-night his readily. Perhaps not until they are brought rescutatives, apportioned on the basis of the "Universal would otherwise protect them in their political rights.

Mr. Blaine's statement of the case is none too broad, as his comparative statistics show. The three States of South Carolina, Mississippi, and Louisianna have seventeen Representatives, apportioned on the basis of one, and burst out crying, for the new story was a temptation.
"But why?" urged the mother. thought you liked papa's lap so well?"
"Yes," said the child; "but to-night his breff don't smell good."

"Did you hear that, Roger?" said the BEST business you can engage in. $5 court, reluctantly consenting at last to his returning to his native land, where he had just arrived, enriched by her costly prescribed. That father's love was worth something. He was not afraid to give his reasons, cicalities. Particulars and samples worth $5. He was not afraid to give his reasons, cither, for declining to drink when urged by others, by replying: "No, no! I've got a little girl at home who would know it; and: mates, I don't think it's good for us, any—

They may discover that it is a struggle on the part of the contest. They may discover that it is a struggle on the part of the Congress for three-fifths of their slave population in addition to their own apportionment; now the Southern apportionment in
They may discover more than that, may discover more than that the may discover more than the may discover more than

Che Corballis Gazette.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Notices in Local Column, 20 cents per line, each in Notices in Local Column, 20 cents per line, each in sertion.
Transient advertisements, per square of 12 lines Nonparell measure, $2.50 for first, and $1 for each subsequent insertion—in ADVANCE.
Legal advertisements charged as transient, and must be paid for upon expiration. Nocharge for publisher's affidavit of publication.
Yearly advertisements on liberal terms. Professional Cards, (1 square) $12 per annum. All notices and advertisements intended for publication should be 11,1121 39 10 1 1 1 N 11 1 5 12.

NO. 5.

an alarmist, but it would really seem as t'ough we were on the eve of great events. EDITOR GAZETTE: Perhaps a few lines When we consider what has taken place from this part of the world may not be un- within the past year or two, and is yet acceptable to you and some of our readers. taking place, we can hardly treat the sub-First, let me congratulate the Gazette on ject lightly. Earthquakes, and Tidal waves its becoming a full grown newspaper, and in South America; great tidal waves and "Sweet cousin," he said, respectfully, let me contribute my mite towards its fu- famine in India; famine in China; violent ture success in the way of another year's hurricanes through the Eastern States, to-ies of your niece; I am the lawfully born a fracture of the knee joint. However, and cause a person to wonder at times if it time and good attendance brought me out; might not just possibly be true, as the murmured Mr. Capel, after ten weeks I was ready again to renew seventh day adventist claim that we are in growing very pale, however; and Hetta's are ten weeks I was ready again to renew seventh day adventist claim that we are in tather repeated the word. Leonard smiled; and that smile of con. for voyage. But on my very first attempt At least I think you will admit that it is added indignantly, "and, if she bids me revenge her, I am ready."

> J. J. WINANO Alameda, Cal., Jan. 10, 1879.

> > Dr. Carter Explains.

"No," said Hetta, softly. "I prefer to great drama of life, and it would seem that man, written by Mr. Bagley, in which my own child.'.

our parts are an prepared for us and at the proper time we will be in the proper place a simple statement in personal vindication. Leonarl exclaimed; "but, if you are so generous to those who have persecuted you, will you not be equally so to me, whose retime to glance around me and think.

It is the duty of the agency physician to report every case treated by him under the head of the disease the patient was suffering. at the time-though that be a cold, itch, or First, then the common topic upon which a simple absects.

When we remember that nearly all the In-All my reports, for about three years, number of Indians, I know it was one continual round of practice from year to year. I am not surprised that the number of Inreluctantly, what I am willing to say now dians treated have decreased since Dr. Bosbest and safest country for poor men to setagency some years ago and so many of the Indians died under his treatment that they The next gloomy cloud that comes up for are fearful of his medicine and will not call California is one that unfortunately threat-can not hear the muttering of the mighty The effective point urged by Mr. Blaine Why He Gave Them Up.

Little folks generally like to run and seet father at night when he returns from meet father at midt when he returns from his day's work, either at the office, store or slop, don't they? The father likes to have them as well.

It tones are ominous, not merely hinting at late election, may bethus stated: The South claims a representation in Congress apportioned to the total population, including negroes as well as whites, but the practical disfranchisement of the blacks permits the them as well.

Roger Craigh did, any way, and when his little "Poly" (as he called her), ran out to the gate he would catch her up and give her to plain facts, and I caudidly believe that the gate he would catch her up and give her to plain facts, and I candidly believe that the apportionment as well as in voting. This proposition enlarges the scope of the back, And oh, what a good time they had is a cancer that has taken root so firmly and whether the blacks shall be protected in the after tea—she on his lap, prattling in child-ish fashion, and he listening or telling his that will bring about a cure. I do not say amendments, but a question whether one famous stories.

One night she met him as usual, but that I favor this as being the best plan, but when ter was over she did not climb up on his lap, but ran off after her mother into the bitchen.

that will bring about a cure. I do not say amendments, but a question whether the that I favor this as being the best plan, but southern white's vote shall equal the votes of two Northern whites. The question is, whether the negro population of the thinking so are, that congress will not take South shall be used for the political aggrankitchen.
"Where's my Polly?" he cried. "Pol- hold of the matter until some terrible out dizement of the Very class that fraudulently face to face with the fact that the people of the Pacific States have risen with arms in their hands resolved to the the property than their hands resolved to the the property than their hands resolved to the states were apportioned by reaopenend. Mr. and Mrs. Capel appeared, and, with a joyous cry, their niece bounded towards them. Had they discovered her incoence, and hastened thither to express their regret? But, no; they waved her asside to make room for a gray-haired stranger. Wonder of wonders! It was the father she had so long mourned as dead! He there she had so long mourned as dead! He had been saved by an Indian Begum, who had not only nursed him back to health, but had given him a high post in her own literally tramped under foot. But I have a hope and belief that such will not be the case. For by that time it is possible that our Eastern brethern may have learned the true nature of the contest. They may discover that it is a struggle on the part of the people of this coast for their very existence. They may discover more than that, may discover that California and Oregon are but cludes the entire colored population, which, thinking.—"O. M., in Youth's Temperance Banner.

A GENTLEMAN is a rarer thing than some of us think for. Which of as can point out many such in his circle—men whose aims are generous, whose truth is constant and elevated, who can look the world honestly in the face with an equal, manly sympathy for the great and the small? We all know a great breakwaters trying to roll back the monster wave of heathen emigration that the choosing the Representative than it had while in a condition of slavery.

This argument is based, of course, upon the assumption that the colored voters are practically disfranchised, which is the subject of inquiry. Fut that the assumption is strong enough to warrant the inquiry is evident from the fact, while thirty-five of the representatives from the Southern States "It is evident that Hetta is obstinately determined not to confess, but you shall have proofs of her guilt. The fellow for whom she forfeited our esteem is frequently seen lurking about the neighborhood. A message purporting to come from this anworth will be here directly."

"Ah! madam, what have you done?" gasped Hetta.

"My duty!" was the exultiag reply, for Mrs. Capel, in her anxiety to prove that she had acted rightly. was pittless. "We will bring you face to face with your secret lover and his first words when you meet will, doubtless, confirm all I have averred."

There was a tap at the door, and Leonard the solution of the constant and also are generous, whose truth is constant and also and Asiatic barbarism, they was lable whose constant and elevated, who can look the world honestly in the face with an equal, manly sympathy for the great and the small? We all know a hundred whose coats are well made, and a score who have excellent manners, but of gentleme, how many? Let us take a listle scap of paper, and each make his list.—

The English language is wonerful for its aptness of expression. When a number of men and womenget to rether and look at each other from the opposite sides of a roompany to the members. However, and his first words when you meet will, doubtless, confirm all I have averred."

There was a tap at the door, and Leonard to the food of the mental content of the professor. The professor is the face with an equal, manly sympathy in the face with an education, sale to take. We have a Constitutional Convention in the face with an education, sale to take. We have a Constitutional Convention in the face with an education, who constitutional Convention in the face with an education, who constitutional Convention in the face with an education, who can be almost defined to take. We have a Constitutional Convention in the face with an education, on the representative to the blong to the elong to the elong to the blong to the blong to the blong to the professor. The work have the look at the look o